

▲ ECSCA Establishes “Welcome Hub” with The Fund in L.A.

A continuation of the “Creators Roundtable” held in N.Y., Washington D.C. and Berlin, representatives of AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund and ECSCA met in L.A. at the Fund’s offices to discuss music licensing and the issues that video game composers face, such as royalty models and the relationship of video game music to film music. Pictured (l-r): ECSCA Chairman Bernard Grimaldi, SCL President Ashley Irwin, AFM & SAG-AFTRA Fund Executive Director Dennis Dreith and ECSCA President Alfons Karabuda. More info at composeralliance.org.